WHERE WE FIND OUR STORIES AND WHAT TO DO NEXT: Legacy, Obligation, and Inspiration in Personal Narratives

Join author and Hali'a Aloha series editor, Darien Hsu Gee, as she explains the "micro-memoir" format of telling life stories and what we do with our stories once we have them. She'll talk about the difference between factual truth and emotional truth, and the importance of documenting our personal narratives, and the best place to begin.

Darien Hsu Gee is the author of five novels published by Penguin Random House that have been translated into eleven languages. She won the 2019 Poetry Society of America's Chapbook Fellowship award for Other Small Histories and the 2015 Hawai'i Book Publishers' Ka Palapala Po'okela Award of Excellence for Writing the Hawai'i Memoir. She lives with her family on the Big Island of Hawai'i.
